

TOPIC: VERBS - Conjunctive adverbs 3

Complete each of the following sentences using one of these conjunctive adverbs: furthermore, instead, hence, therefore, besides, meanwhile, still, otherwise, nonetheless, in contrast. For some sentences, more than one correct answer is possible. Choose the most natural-sounding response.

ex: John was a good dancer; in contrast, his brother was a horrible dancer.

1. He was the best player on the team; _____, the coach was not impressed by his skill.
2. I hope I get paid this week; _____, I won't be able to buy my ticket.
3. He wrote three great novels; _____, he wrote a series of short stories.
4. Thomas had no problem falling asleep; _____, his friend John couldn't fall asleep for two hours.
5. She was a world-famous singer with many top 10 hits; _____, she was a successful painter.
6. John didn't care that he didn't get the job; _____, he was leaving town in two weeks.
7. I don't speak German; _____, I don't understand your grandparents.
8. I knew that the cat would require a lot of care; _____, I adopted her.
9. He didn't go to the beach; _____, he went hiking in the mountains.
10. You need to answer the questions more quickly; _____, you won't finish the test on time.

TOPIC: VERBS - Conjunctive adverbs 3

ANSWERS:

1. still OR nonetheless
2. otherwise
3. furthermore
4. meanwhile OR in contrast
5. furthermore
6. besides
7. therefore OR hence
8. still OR nonetheless
9. instead
10. otherwise